PLAYBOOK

Platform thinking

Design for modularity, scale and data integration from day one

Lean core teams

Small, high quality and cross-functional to move fast

Build to scale

Deliver products built for revenue & customer experience, not just proof of concept

Enterprise readiness

Embed trust, governance and reliability from the start

Customer signal first

Validate early with real users, not internal opinions

Asset leverage

Use brand, data, infrastructure and customer access as competitive advantages

Stakeholder fluency

Translate between product, commercial and executive priorities

Storytelling

Build compelling narratives for teams, investors and partners

LEADERSHIP

Chief Digital Officer

2025 – present

Nido & Livensa Living, London & Madrid

- Built and led a full digital and technology team driving end-to-end transformation across product, data and technology for a PE-backed pan-European accommodation platform
- Key products: a web platform with full property management and booking, and a resident app managing the in-stay experience across all accommodation types
- Building a single data warehouse to power operations, insight and product intelligence. Launched an Innovation Labs model to validate AI-powered concepts at pace

Co-Founder & CPO

2025 – present

Boxxed.ai

- GenAI platform live with paying clients, embedding AI into business workflows across briefing, performance, campaign management and market intelligence
- Products include a briefing agent, performance agent, campaign management architecture and a media sweep tool providing real-time news insight

Managing Director & Founder

Feb 2022 – May 2025

Etc. at BT Group, London

- Served on BT's Digital & Technology Board. Scaled two ventures (Drones, ActiveIntel) to divisions valued over £500M each
- Delivered BT's first cloud-native PCI-compliant payments platform, enabling £150M in cost savings and supporting over £5B in transactions. Launched the UK's first commercial drone corridor
- Built and led a cross-functional team of 500+ with an 85% engagement score

Chief Product Officer

Aug 2019 – Feb 2022

Vodafone Smart Tech, London & Berlin

- Founded Vodafone’s Consumer IoT division. Launched 10 products across 13 countries, shipped over 100k devices
- Award-winning hardware including Curve and Neo in partnership with Disney. Led Group-level design for the Ultra Hub broadband platform. Rolled out agile structure across Vodafone Group

Founding Partner & CPO

Feb 2012 – Aug 2019

Hive (Centrica)

- Scaled from zero to 5 million users, the UK’s number one smart home brand. Designed 15+ products including the best-selling thermostat with Yves Béhar
- Joint energy propositions drove 30% new-to-brand acquisition. Expanded internationally, completed two strategic acquisitions
